progress with a view to achieving anticipated benefits both in terms of job creation and revenue accruals?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) As per a recent research work, every additional one million foreign tourists coming to India has the potential of generating Rs. 4356 crores of revenue in the tourism industry and capital investment of Rs. 4516 crores in the industry has the potential of generating employment for 1,50,534 persons.

(b) The new Tourism Policy 2002 attempts to position tourism as a major engine of economic growth and to harness the direct and multiplier effect of tourism for employment generation and economic development. The Department of Tourism, Government of India has already identified at least one tourism-cum-cultural hub in each State/Union Territory and six tourism circuits in the country for integrated development. A new style of governance has been introduced which involves decision making at the spot during inspection tours, assessment of the problems in consultation with all stakeholders and following up of the progress of implementation of the projects by constant review and monitoring at the level of Minister and senior officers.
